Florida State University

FSU Department Service

- * Member, Curriculum Revision Committee (2013).

This committee convened to revise the curricular requirements according to the CSWE for SOW 3350: Interviewing and Documentation.

- * CSW Representative, Kick Butts Day (2013).

Represented the College of Social Work on the Union Green. Provided information to students on Smoking Cessation Programs.

- * Member, Strategic Planning Committee (2012–2013).

The committee convenes to refine the existing mission and vision statements and develop priorities, goals, and initiatives to guide the College of Social Work in future endeavors.

- * Member, CSW International Programs Committee (2010–2013).

This committee is responsible for providing comprehensive international programming for CSW faculty and students including study abroad, field internships, cooperative exchange agreements, service projects, and scholarship.

- * Member, Student Affairs Committee (2010–2012).

This committee is responsible for monitoring student-related issues concerning diversity in addition to other student issues as they arise, such as the awarding of special recognitions and scholarships. It also functions as a liaison between faculty and students.

The Community

Governance Committee Chair, FSU Early Head Start Program Committee (2013–present).

This is a federally funded program that provides services to income-eligible pregnant women, infants and toddlers to age three in Gadsden County, Florida. Funds serve to provide health, developmental, educational, and social service needs of young children and families.

- * Member, The Women of FSU (2012–present).

The goal is to unite the women of Florida State University as leaders, advocates, and donors. The hope is to inspire and empower women by increasing awareness and education, as well as providing opportunities for mentoring, networking, and philanthropy.

- * Volunteer, Joanna Francis Living Well Foundation (2012–present).

Serve as one of 20 breast cancer survivor fashion models at luncheon fundraisers held annually. Relief funds provide non-medical assistance for women living with breast cancer to assure the survivor and family are "living well."

* Volunteer, Reach to Recovery, American Cancer Society (2012–present).

The goal is to match breast cancer survivors to women who contact the program. As a survivor, I will speak to women telephonically who have recently been diagnosed about treatment options, coping with side effects, and answer questions they may have. I will be matched to women of my appropriate age and who have a similar breast cancer experience.

* Advisory Committee Member, FSU Liaison, Achieve Higher Ground (2012–present).

Educate communities about Restorative Justice, an approach to justice that focuses on creating healing and restorative outcomes in the aftermath of crime. In this approach, crime is viewed as an assault upon a person and community rather than an assault upon the state.

* Volunteer, Making Strides Against Breast Cancer (2011–present).

Educate women about early detection and prevention, assist in raising money for life-saving research, and lend support to those, like myself, who celebrate life as a breast cancer survivor.

* Faculty Advisor, To Write Love On Her Arms (FSU Chapter) (2010–present).

Work with students in a movement dedicated to presenting hope and finding help for students struggling with depression, addictions, self-injurious behaviors, and suicidal idealizations. By building community, students organize gatherings, cultivate awareness, and create networks to spread the message of hope.

* Motivational Circuit Speaker, Twelve Step Conventions/Retreats (2005–present).

These are weekend service commitments. In addition to my one hour talk and one hour workshops, I must be available to speak to addicts and alcoholics from Friday evening through Saturday afternoon. 2005: St. George Island, FL
