Convocation Speaker

Jack Richman, Ph.D., MSW

Associate Dean of International Programs and Professor University of North Carolina, School of Social Work

Jack Richman is an educational leader in social work. He received his MSW from the University of New York at Albany and his Ph.D. in counseling from FSU. He has been on the faculty of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill since 1983 and served as the dean of UNC Chapel Hill's School of Social Work from 2002-2016. Dr. Richman's research and scholarship focuses on individuals, couples, families, social support, at-risk students and evaluation. He has published extensively, including coauthoring the books Intervention Research and The Context of Youth Violence: Resilience, Research and Protection. Dr. Richman also served as consulting editor or on the editorial board for the journals Children in Schools, Social Work in Education, and The American Journal of Hospice and Palliative Care.

Dean of the College of Social Work

Jim Clark, Ph.D.

Dean and Professor

Dr. Jim Clark has been Dean of the College of Social Work since July 2015. His research focus in forensic mental health includes the areas of justice, mental health and child welfare systems. He has also published extensively in the areas of substance abuse, criminal justice, and child traumatic stress. He is currently co-editing a book for the American Bar Association on best practices in death penalty mitigation. Previous to his appointment at FSU, Dr. Clark served as the director of the School of Social Work at the University of Cincinnati, and as associate dean for Research at the University of Kentucky College of Social Work. He was co-founder and associate director of the University of Kentucky Center on Trauma and Children.
