About the position:

We're a therapist-owned private group practice based in New York City. We're excited to expand our services to Florida from our new location in Brickell, Miami. This is a remote position for Florida licensed therapists who can work from anywhere in the state.

Our clients are low-risk and highly motivated. We're looking for remarkable candidates who share our commitment to excellence. We may be a great match if you share our vision and passion to:

- Do Meaningful work
- Be part of a culture with purpose
- Be an Agent of Change, not a number
- Have a positive impact in our community
- Our mission of service through innovation
- Our strong eclectic brand & authentic culture

We maintain a mid-sized team to provide you with community and individual attention. We're invested in your personal and professional growth.

Our Work Culture:

- Transparent, Authentic, Challenging!
- Mentors who coach; not boss
- Work/Life balance
- Flexible hours and work schedule
- Remote work from home
- We highly value diversity in culture, ethnicity, age, religion, gender, and sexual orientation
- Cultural understanding & experience working with our LGBTQIA+ community
- Understanding & experience working with our diverse cultures and communities in Florida

We Invest in Our Team:

- Mentoring & Individual Attention
- Personal Growth & Development
- Career & Skills Development

Qualifications:

- Active LCSW, LMHC, LMFT license in Florida
- Candidates with a minimum of 1 year clinical experience
- Knowledge DSM-V, Psychodynamic Therapy, CBT, Solution Focused Therapy, & other clinical modalities
- Ability to see 10-14 clients per week (45-60 min) sessions per week
- BIPOC and LGBTQ therapists are encouraged to apply
- Bi-lingual, Spanish or Creole, a plus
