

Schyler Brumm, MSW/MS

sbrumm@fsu.edu

EDUCATION

Florida State University

August 2023–Present

Doctoral Student of Social Work

Florida State University

August 2015–August 2017

Master of Social Work

Master of Science in Criminology

Florida State University

August 2013–May 2015

Bachelor of Science in Psychology

College of Central Florida

August 2011–May 2013

Associate of Arts in Psychology

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Center for the Study & Promotion of Communities, Families, & Children

Program Manager

(August 2022–July 2023)

- Led and edited development of key curriculum for child welfare professionals
- Facilitated and trained child welfare professionals and court stakeholders
- Assisted with proposals and grant application processes that included writing, editing, and coordinating with partners for development
- Coordinated with subject matter experts, professionals, agencies, and community stakeholders to inform projects
- Managed and implemented research efforts for projects
- Ensured fulfilment of project deliverables
- Drafted and collaborated on reports of project needs and deliverables
- Supervised and directed graduate assistants and interns

Center for the Study & Promotion of Communities, Families, & Children

Program Associate

(October 2021–August 2022)

- Collaborated in the development of key curriculum for child welfare professionals
- Partnered with stakeholders and gathered applicable information
- Conducted and facilitated trainings for professional development
- Participated in and managed video production events for project development
- Supported in fulfilment of project deliverables

Guardian ad Litem

Child Advocate Manager

(October 2018–October 2021)

- Coordinated advocacy for the best interests of abused, neglected, and abandoned children in the dependency system
- Collected case related information and presented recommendations to the court
- Attended court hearings, depositions, case plan conferences, dependency mediations,

staffings, and meetings with the Department of Children and Families and other social service agencies

- Assigned tasks to volunteers to expedite casework and promote timely permanency objectives in collaboration with Best Interest Attorneys
- Acted as circuit staff representative for statewide committees on mental health and behavioral health and diversity, equity, and inclusion
- Supervised and directed student interns
- Engaged in Early Childhood Court meetings and hearings as a core team member (Leon, Gadsden, and Wakulla County)

Apalachee Center, Inc.

Community Action Team Therapist

(September 2017–August 2018)

- Completed and documented comprehensive assessments of individual youth strengths and needs
- Developed individualized service plans that included measurable goals and objectives in partnership with the youth and their families
- Facilitated and documented individual, family, and group treatment to aid youth and families in making positive changes
- Provided on-call crisis intervention covering after hours, weekends and holidays as required by the needs of the clients

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Center for the Study & Promotion of Communities, Families, & Children

Co-Investigator

(October 2021–July 2023)

- Interviewed subject matter experts across diverse areas to inform project development
- Created and submitted materials for IRB application processes, such as surveys, focus groups, focus group guides, consent forms, flyers, and protocol for data collection
- Coordinated and conducted surveys and focus groups for research purposes
- Analyzed and generated reports from data collection

Dr. Thomas Smith and Dr. Stephanie Prost Project

Student Researcher - Volunteer

(August 2016–August 2017)

- Administered surveys and collected data on needs of inmates in a Central Florida jail
- Gathered information through literature pertaining to inmate needs for project development

Directed Individual Study - Dr. Jeanette Taylor's Taylor Lab

Student Researcher

(January 2015–May 2015)

- Assisted graduate students on projects and research that focused on the study of biological, psychological, cognitive, and environmental factors related to substance use disorders and/or personality disorders

Directed Individual Study - Dr. Jeanette Taylor's Florida Twin Project

Student Researcher

(January 2014–May 2015)

- Documented and evaluated responses of roughly 2600 child twin pairs from across the state of Florida
- Trained on reliability and scored written narratives submitted by child twin pairs
- Analyzed data using File Maker, Coh-matrix, and SPSS

PRESENTATIONS & CERTIFICATIONS

- Florida Institute for Child Welfare Symposium May 2023
- Florida Substance Use Disorder Symposium Apr. 2023
- Courts as Agents of Change (Presenter) Feb. 2023
- Family Engagement in the Dependency System (Facilitator) Dec. 2022
- Attending to Trauma During Child Welfare Removal (Facilitator) Oct. 2022
- Parent Engagement & Motivation to Change (Presenter) Jun. 2022
- 6th International Conference on Motivational Interviewing Jun. 2022
- FSU College of Social Work Field Educator Training May 2022
- Florida Institute for Child Welfare Symposium May 2022
- Florida Substance Use Disorder Symposium Apr. 2022
- CITI, Human Subjects Research Dec. 2021
- Screening, Brief Intervention, and Referral to Treatment Dec. 2021
- Early Childhood Court Webinar Guardian ad Litem (Presenter) May 2020
- Certified Child Advocate Manager May 2020
- Early Childhood Court All Sites Jun. 2019
- Early Childhood Court Symposium May 2019
- Wraparound 101 Training Mar. 2018
- Online Training Course for Trauma-Focused CBT May 2017
- Florida Circle of Parents Facilitator Training Mar. 2016
- Instilling Hope through Trauma-Informed Care Training Mar. 2016