

MILITARY SOCIAL WORK FOCUS

The Military Social Work interest area affords students the opportunity to explore the issues faced by and learn strategies for intervening with military service members, veterans and their families. This interest area seeks to prepare students for the many varied opportunities for working with military service personnel, veterans, and military families. The focus of this work is to aid military service personnel, veterans and their families manage the social, emotional, psychological challenges they may face related to the unique demands of their jobs.

SAMPLE COURSES

Please note that these are course suggestions, not requirements for students interested in this area. Course availability varies based on semester, program, and location. Course offerings are subject to change. Students should consult with their advisors for additional guidance about their program of study. MSW students who receive approval from the MSW Program Director may take one elective for degree credit outside the College of Social Work.

COURSE NAME & NUMBER

SOW 4658/5659: CHILD MALTREATMENT & CHILD WELFARE

SOW 4702/5712: SUBSTANCE USE & MISUSE

SOW 4615/5614: FAMILY VIOLENCE

SOW 4247/5248: HOMELESSNESS IN AMERICA

GRADUATE ONLY:

SOW 5611: FAMILY COUNSELING

SOW 5745: SEMINAR ON LOSS & BEREAVEMENT

SOW 5938: TRAUMA-INFORMED SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE

RECOMMENDED ACTIVITIES

Become involved with the FSU Veteran Student Union and the FSU Student Veterans Center

Review NASW Publications on the Military and Veterans