COLLEGE OF SOCIAL WORK ELECTRONIC POLICY

It is the policy of the College of Social Work that technology applied to or used for a course and/or official College business cannot be used for any other purposes than those that directly relate to the curriculum and/or official College business. Technology includes but is not limited to electronic mail services (including electronic mailing lists), the Internet, software, and course web site shell programs. Furthermore, this policy applies to the use of all computer equipment owned by the College of Social Work.

Activities that are expressly prohibited under this policy include:

- a. giving or selling e-mail addresses and/or other personal information regarding students, instructors, staff, or faculty to any outside person or organization;
- b. using e-mail lists for students, instructors, staff, or faculty for commercial and/or solicitation purposes;
- c. enabling anyone who is not registered for a particular course to access the system without permission and consent from the instructor for the course;
- d. enabling anyone who is not authorized to use the University or College database to access the system without permission and consent from the supervisor;
- e. utilizing the College's electronic system for activities or purposes which do not pertain to course content and/or official College business, illegal activities, or for other activities not authorized by the College of Social Work; and,
- f. installing (or allowing to be installed) "pirated", i.e. copied unlawfully, software on any College computer or distributing software purchased with College (including grant) resources to persons for non-College related purposes.

Any person found in violation of this policy will be sanctioned by the College of Social Work according to the appropriate University policies.

I have read the above policy and agree to have my e-mail address shared with all Phi Alpha members. I am also aware that I may only e-mail Phi Alpha members regarding Phi Alpha approved events. If I am uncertain whether an e-mail is appropriate for all Phi Alpha members, I will seek clarification from a Phi Alpha officer.
